

A model can be moved the maximum possible parameter distance with no change to what it computes

(a) equal parameter movement, unequal functional cost

(b) the flat norm reorders the symmetries

